Red Band Brand Bon Bons are just as fine as any bon bons to be had anywhere, and they are much cheaper at Surrency & Powers. Try them.

Mr. Live Ballentine, of the Coast Life offices, has been at home since Friday, having gone to be at the wedding of his sisters, Misses Eula and Mamie.

W. A. Rye, one of the most substantial and successful farmers in Suwannee county, who lives in the Rossburg section, was in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Julia Howell, of Alachua, was in the city last night. She left this morning for Wellborn to be at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Keefe, who is very ill.

Mrs. M. E. Broome and two charming daughters, Misses Mamie and Katie, left today for Madison where they will spend a week visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. Willard McIlvane, of Worth-Stephens Co., accompanied Rev. C. A. Ridley to the wedding at Mr. Ballentine's yesterday. Mack says he would like such times every Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bache returned this morning from a stay of a week or more in the Northern markets. They purchased a large and complete line of beautiful fall millinery and hats.

The wise man or woman is the one who relieves little ills of this sort by a little dose of Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat and puts your stomach back into shape. Sold by City Pharmacy.

The kindergarten opened this morning with a very flattering attendance, and Miss Cherry feels satisfied that this will prove a very successful year. A number of others little folks will enter next week.

Good for the cough, removes the cold, the cause of the cough. That's the work of Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the original laxative cough syrup. Contains no opiates. Sold by City Pharmacy.

Worth Stephens, president of the Worth Stephens Co., returned from New York today where he has been for several weeks past combining business with pleasure. He looks much improved by his vacation.

Miss Flora Farnsworth, of Kissimmee, arrived in city Saturday night and this morning reported for duty at the High school building. She comes very highly recommended as a teacher, having had a number of years experience.

Learn Stenography and Typewriting, it pays better than a clerkship, teaching or day labor. Our $30 offer lasts only this week. If you begin now you will graduate and have a position by the New Year. Southern Business College and Short-hand School.

From the appearance of things this morning, the public schools of our city have really begun. Children by the hundreds were seen headed towards the school building, and surely mirth and merriment were in the very atmosphere! Laughing lads and merry maidens make us young again.

Miss Hildergard Mann, of DeLand, reached Live Oak Saturday night and went to work in the High school this morning. Miss Mann is one of the best teachers in Florida, and the High school is fortunate in having her assistance this year.

The Suwannee High school opened this morning with a very large enrollment of pupils. All of the teachers were in their places and ready for the work before them, and the pupils seemed determined to put in a good year of hard work. The school is supplied with the very best talent obtainable in the faculty, and nothing has been neglected in the fitting of the school to make this the most successful term in its whole history. Many improvements have been made over last year. The trustees and members of the School Board have seen to that.

We regret to chronicle the death of Miss Annie Gray, which occurred at her home at Pinemount yesterday. Miss Gray was born in Hamilton county, but has lived at Pinemount for a number of years. She was thirty years of age at the time of her death, and leaves two brothers, J. G. and G. L. Gray, besides a host of other relatives and friends, to mourn her loss. The funeral will take place at Pleasant Hill today. We extend our sympathies to the bereaved ones in their sorrow.

All parents and those interested in the cause of education should be sure and attend the educational rally at the Courthouse tonight. An interesting program has been prepared. A number of addresses will be delivered by prominent citizens of the city. Prof. Arno will have charge of the music, vocal and instrumental. No admission will be charged. Everybody is invited. The object of the meeting is to create a healthier interest in school work and to bring patrons in closer touch and sympathy with the teachers.

Yes, Well Represented. "Is Live Oak represented on your register today?" asked a stranger at the Aragon last night.

The clerk, to whom the query was addressed, answered in the affirmative, of course.

"That is not all," he continued; "turn backward over the pages and you will see Live Oak present on every page, and to the left, see the names of the most prominent citizens in the state and captains of industry every time."

It is a fact and no one will dispute it. More Live Oak people register at the local hotels than from any one city in the state. Live Oak is a bustling little city and its citizens are all wide-awake business men.

Among the wellknown business men registered at the Aragon yesterday from Live Oak, were W. R. Dorman, J. B. Johnson and Worth Stephens. At the Travelers—J. P. Hillburn.—Times-Union, Sept. 24.

STARVING TO DEATH.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health Tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by Barclay & Groover, druggists.

THE ORIGINAL

The idea of a Cough Syrup that will act on the bowels, and thus assist in expelling colds from the system is new and original in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Nearly all other cough cures are constipating, especially those containing Opiates. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar moves the bowels, contains no Opiates.

LAXATIVE

A certain, safe and harmless remedy for all Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, La Grippe, Bronchitis, Influenza and all Lung and Bronchial affections. Mothers praise the children's favorite Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar
